DID YOU MISS IT? SAVE THE DATE FOR NEXT YEAR!

Steve Hightower's "We Want to Know What Love Is"

at The Fox Theatre held in May of this year raised over $40,000 for ChildKind, Fragile Kids Foundation and The Center for Children & Young Adults. With the support of 400 of Atlanta's most beautiful people, on the inside and out, the event gave disabled children and victims of abuse and neglect the chance to walk the catwalk and feel like supermodels while a full choir and the Sentimental Journey Orchestra serenaded them. Dinner, dancing and live music truly made this event a celebration of life!
